Highlights

- Browser-based coding tool for teaching EEG, optical PPG/fNIRS, and head motion.
- Connects Muse 2016, Muse 2, Muse S, and Muse S Athena with no software install.
- Built-in simulator lets students write and test code at home without hardware.
- Visual Catalogue of 226 example and student sketches across 18 categories.
- Evaluated on 69 neurofeedback and ERP projects from 30 students ($p < 10^{-11}$).